

THE BANK OF ENGLAND (THE BANK)

DECLARATION OF SECRECY FOR NON-BANK STAFF

BANK SECRECY RULES

The Bank's rules with regard to Secrecy are that:

The strictest secrecy is to be observed with respect to information of any kind acquired in the course of your duties relating to the affairs and concerns of the Bank; the Prudential Regulation Authority (the PRA); His Majesty's Government; other customers; or other persons, companies or organisations with which the Bank or the PRA may have dealings.

You should know that it is a criminal offence to make unauthorised disclosure of certain information, including information obtained under the Bank's and the PRA's regulatory powers.

You must not seek to profit or to minimise any loss, financially or otherwise, by making use either directly or indirectly of information acquired in the course of your duties. You must comply with the contents of the Guidance Note on Market Abuse (Insider Dealing and Market Manipulation) and with the Personal Financial Transactions Policy insofar as this applies to you, and to the Notice to Staff concerning the Official Secrets Act 1989.

You are responsible for handling personal data in line with obligations under applicable data protection and privacy laws and the Bank's internal policies.

Unless you are expressly authorised by the Bank or the PRA to do so, you must not allow any unauthorised person to have access to books, papers or electronic records of various kinds belonging to the Bank or the PRA, nor furnish extracts thereof, nor give information of any kind relating to the business of the Bank or the PRA.

You must not take part in any public discussion, either in the Press or otherwise, on the affairs or policy of the Bank or the PRA without first obtaining, through your Head of Division, the permission of the Head of Stakeholder & Media Engagement.

DECLARATION

I do solemnly and sincerely declare that:-

- (a) save as otherwise required by law, I will faithfully and honestly keep secret during the course of my duties at the Bank and the PRA, and after the termination thereof, all matters with which I may become acquainted relating to the affairs and concerns of the Bank and the PRA, of His Majesty's Government, of other customers, or of other persons, companies or organisations with which the Bank may have dealings;
- (b) I will not seek to profit financially or otherwise myself, my family or any other person by making use, either directly or indirectly, of information acquired by me in the course of my duties; and
- (c) I understand that the improper use of or disclosure of information obtained directly or indirectly by virtue of my duties at the Bank may lead to prosecution.

Name..... Signature.....

Date..... Company.....

Start date of working in the Bank.....